SELECTED.

When, in the first wild throes of grief, The sick heart turns from all relief, And backward counting, sad and slow, An hour, a week, a month ago
To days ere yet the light had flown
From those dear eyes we called our own;-We ask of God the seal 'o set; "How long, O Lord, ere we forget?"

For still to live through unknown years Lost voices ringing in our ears.— Lost faces held in memory's grasp.— Los: hands that never more we clasp,-And feet who e steps have died away Walking beside us day by day,— Seems all to hard for love's regret, And so we pray, 'Let us forget!'

But when above life's trouble I springs We feel the stir of angels wings, And His dear blessing, sweet and slow, Drops on the wounded hearts below; When Faith ascends the golden stair, Of love and hope and trust and prayer, Though grid and pain may linger yet, We would not, if we could, forget!

—Mary Elizabeth Blake.

INDIVIDUAL VIEWS.

Col. Harry Skinner publishes in the current number of the Greenville Reflector a eard stating his position and views in regard to certain public questions that are being agihe has been conspicuously identified.

Says the Raleigh Chronicle: "We have always understood that Col Skinner has been out and out opposed to the Third party movement, and that while he would like to have his peculiar views on the subtreasury plan endorsed as Democratic doctrine, he would never, however, insist to the extent of endangering the integrity of the Democratic party, which we know Col. Skinner gave his money and time to preserve when assailed in the Eastern counties by negroes and bad white men.

"Col. Skinner sees the danger of the present political complications and monfully states his position in the following extract from his frank · Now while these are my individnal views, I have no desire to force them upon Democrats who cannot see through the same glass as I do, and certainly would not want them incorporated in our State platform, recognizing as I do that there is that difference of opinion among Democrats that would hazard the harmo ny of Democratic councils and jeopardize our success at the polls; realizing further as I do that our white people must be held together within the organization of Democracy to preserve home rule, to prevent the ested attention; his presentation of the facts—though already gone over the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the touch of his masterly genius, while his readings of the law from differtial that she knew Keinp's Balsan for the ested attention; his presentation of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the when the same knew Keinp's Balsan for the ested attention; his presentation of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the when other cough instantly when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. So to prove this and convince you of its merits any druggist will give a sample bottle free; large size to convert the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest and the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new interest under the stream of the facts—though already gone over by counsel preceding him—was clothed with new intere the organization of Demogracy to the evils that would follow therefrom, the people of North Carolina may be assured while I claim the right of my individual views, I stand ready to make any sacrifice to prevent the disruption of the Democratic party. And if I may be permitted to make a suggestion (without criticism) to Alliance and non-Alliance Democrats in the interest of harmony, it would be to carry out what I intended at the last meeting of the State Executive Committee, to recommend to the different county conventions with as little variation as possible the State platform of 1890, and relegate all our differences of a national character to the different Congressional convencions, as this class of relief must come through the channel of Congress, and these are the political bodies that should be impressed with the importance of relief on the line indicated".

A Request.

Dear Argus: - Permit me through your columns to state that I am now in charge of the Orphans' Home, in Goldsboro, and am anxious to plant the farm and garden attached. I ask for a contribution of seeds of all kinds, also for live stock, poultry, etc.

All articles can be sent direct to the Orphanage, or left with Mr. Wm. T. Dortch at his office in Goldsboro.

We specially need some seed corn, peas, and all kinds of garden plants, flowers, shrubs, also wood by the lead. We will gratefully receive even the smallest donation.

Respectfully, WM. COBB WHITFIELD, M. D., Superintendent, Goldsboro, N. C., April 21st, '92.

"I don't like the breath of that stove!" exclaimed little Ethel one day when the gas was escaping from the sitting room stove. Coel-gas is like the prefumes of India," compared with the breath of a person afflicted with eatarrh, but among many other symptoms the sense of smell is often deadened, so the sufferer is unconscions of the offensiveness of his presence. Why any one will endure such a painful dangerous and offensive disease, when Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure the most stubborn case, is one of the many mysteries The proprietors are so confident of the success of this Catarrh Remedy, that they offer to forfeit $500 for any case of catarrh teuy cannot cure. It would be suicide for their remedy, for them to make this offer, unless they understood its evact powers. YE OLDEN TIME.

Feast of Reason and a Flow of Wit" in Our Court House, Among the Legal Brethren, that carried the Older Heads of the Audience Back to the Days of McRre, Washington, l'ortch an ! Strong, of ye Olden Time,

The case that attracted most attention during the term of our Superior Court which has just expired, was that of Roberts & Hoge vs. Fuchtler & Kern et. al. In this case the public were treated to as fine a display of legal skill, forensic eloquence and judicial patience, learning, clearness and fairness as it has been our pleasure to see in a. long while. The plaintiffs were represented by Mr. F. A. Woodard, of the Wilcon bar, and Messrs. Robinson and Wilcon bar, and Messrs. Robinson and Menroe of this bar, and the defendants were represented by Mr. Zolli coffer of the Henderson bar, and Messrs. Aycock & Daniels, Faircloth, Allen & Dortch and I. F. Dortch of this bar. Thursday evening, after all the challenges on both sides had been exhausted, the following gentlemen were selected as the jury, to wit; Ashley Creech, C. B. Hicks, R. tated at this time and with which L. Scott, J. H. Sanders, David Mc-Kinnie, D. W. Parks, Zach Hinnant, W. B. Vail, W. R. Fail, J. W. Edwards, Simon Grady and Needham

Lewis, (col.) The evidence was concluded Friday morning and the case was opentiffs' whole case.

Mr. Woodard was followed by Mr.

I. F. Dortch, who in that clear, for zeful and telling manner for which he is so well known and admired, replied to the speech of Mr. Woodard.

Mr. Dortch was followed by Mr. HOOD & BRITT.
Munroe for the plaintiff, who from the opening to the close of his argument held the jury, the bar and the large audience of our most prominent citizens in unbroken and interent decisions of the Supreme Court of our own and other States bearing on the case at issue, proved him to be a man of tireless research, deep learning and discriminating mind. Mr. Munroe was followed by Mr. F. A. Daniels, for the defendants, who, in a sperch of about two hours length, bristling with dry humor, hard, logical reason, earnest and pa-thetic appeals, and, withal, clothed in such superb English that it might well serve as a model for the masters, almost persuaded the jury.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little surferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to the case was such a one as gave free play to the great powers of Mr. Robinson before a jury and his genus. greater advantage than on this occasion.

Mr. Robinson was followed by Mr. Aycock, who made the last and closing speech for the defendants. In strong reasoning and fiery, beaming eloquence, as well could be gotten into a steech of an hour's length.

The Judge's charge was illumined by that strong and steady light, under which nothing in point, either great or small, can be obscured, and couched in such a clear and lucid style that it could not be misapprehended by any one. The jury gave patient and careful attention to the speeches of counsel, and, after staying speeches of counsel, and, after staying out all night, came in Saturday morning with a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs. The defendants ap-

A Great Explosion. In these days of gunpowder, dynamite, giant powder, and the like, tremendous explosions are no rarity, but the greatest explosion of modern times is, without doubt, that of the "old-school" idea that Consumption is ineurable. Thousands of lives have been sacrificed to this mistaken notion. Modern research has established the fact that Consumption is a scrofulous disease of the lungs, and that there is one remedy which will positively eradicate it from the system—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Of course' there were in the olden times many who would have pronounced modern explosives instruments of witchcraft; but there are, fortunately few to day who do not acknowledge that "Golden Mødical Disgovery" is the one sovereign remedy for allscrofulous diseases and Consumption is one of them, Alen, who, with that clear, intelligible, forceful and persuasive manner which always characterizes his speeches, laid before the court and jury the defendants' reasons, both of law and fact, for asking a verdict at their hands. Mr. Allen was followed by Mr. F. A. Woodard for the plaintiffs, who, in a speech of about two hours in length, of great power, burning with eloquence and weighted with strong logical argument, clear, lucid and convincing, laid before the court and jury the plaintiffs' whole case.
